About the Author:

Aness An always wanted a career that allowed her to travel around the world. She wrote down her dreams on a blank notecard, carrying it in her wallet as a constant reminder. A few years later, she accomplished everything on the card. Now she wants to share how her dream cards changed her life with other women. A graduate of Illinois State University with a major in mass communication, the author became an anchor and reporter at KBC-TV Chicago, where she covered stories on women's issues. Lady, You Deserve It was published in South Korea and became a bestseller, giving hope and motivation to women. Her books are published in several languages and continue to captivate the minds and hearts of millions of readers, challenging them to succeed.
